A Message From The President:

Many lung cancer research advances have occurred over the last year. However, it can take a long time for research breakthroughs to translate into treatments. Waiting for these translations makes this field difficult because the patients of today don't have the luxury of time. We know, though, that the only way to improve treatments for the patients of tomorrow is through investment in today's research.

While 2009 saw some promises in federal lung cancer research funding, it was not enough to turn the tide against years of funding neglect for lung cancer research. This is where National Lung Cancer Partnership steps in. We are committed to funding lung cancer research and driving research forward. With increased resources, lung cancer researchers can do more and make the wait for new treatments shorter.

We are also working to raise awareness of the disease in order to bring it to the forefront of the public's conscience. In 2009, the Partnership held its seventh annual meeting, sponsored 23 Free to Breathe® events around the country, hosted a four-day advocacy summit, launched a social media campaign, and welcomed Pennsylvania as our second State Chapter!

With your dedication and passion, we have made significant strides in increasing the funding available for lung cancer research and raising awareness and educating the public about this disease. We hope you will continue to support us as we persevere in the fight against lung cancer.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Joan Schiller".

Joan Schiller, MD
President, National Lung Cancer Partnership

---

The National Lung Cancer Partnership is a group of leading doctors, researchers, patient advocates, and lung cancer survivors who are working together to improve treatments for lung cancer patients. We are dedicated to raising public awareness of the disease and generating funding for lung cancer research.

Our mission is to decrease deaths due to lung cancer, and help patients live longer and better, through research, awareness and advocacy.

Our goals are to:

- Raise awareness of the deadly impact of lung cancer upon both women and men
- Increase funding for lung cancer research
- Improve patient care by educating and empowering patients and healthcare professionals

RESEARCH

Research Grant Program:

Funding cutting-edge lung cancer research is essential to developing screening, diagnosis and treatment advances that will help patients live longer and better lives. The National Lung Cancer Partnership's Young Investigator Research Grant program is designed to ignite researchers' interest in lung cancer, encourage researchers to enter the lung cancer field and jump start their careers. These researchers critically need funds to develop better screening and diagnosis methods and more effective treatments and give hope to everyone affected by lung cancer.

The Partnership has awarded over $1.5 million to support lung cancer research in the last five years. In 2009, the Partnership (including our two State Chapters) directly awarded over $500,000 for lung cancer research, and awarded an additional $50,000 in partnership with the Oncology Nursing Society Foundation.

National Lung Cancer Partnership Annual Meeting:

The Partnership's seventh Annual Meeting, Advancing Individualized Care in Lung Cancer: New Hope for Screening and Treatment, was held in Orlando, FL, on May 29, 2010.

This symposium brought together researchers, healthcare professionals, and patient advocates to learn about the progress towards personalizing care for each lung cancer patient.

Some of the topics discussed included:

- new technologies for radiation therapy for lung cancer
- strategies for preventing chemotherapy-induced nausea and vomiting
- use of circulating tumor cells for screening, diagnosis and treatment of lung cancer
- identifying and targeting critical molecular pathways in lung cancer to find more effective treatment for the disease

The speaker lineup was filled with internationally renowned lung cancer scientists:

- Joan H. Schiller, MD
University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center
- David Beer, PhD – University of Michigan
- Lecia Sequist, MD, MPH – Massachusetts General Hospital
- Walter Curran, MD – Emory University School of Medicine
- Richard Gralla, MD – North Shore-Long Island Jewish Health System
- Tony Mok, MD – The Chinese University of Hong Kong
- Heather Wakelee, MD – Stanford University School of Medicine
- Kathy S. Albain, MD – Loyola University Chicago Stritch School of Medicine
- Michele Coté, PhD - Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute
- Richard Pietras, MD, PhD - University of California, Los Angeles
- John D. Minna, MD - The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center

The meeting was summarized in the Fall 2009 edition of the Partnership's newsletter, Lung Cancer Voice.

AWARENESS

Free to Breathe® Lung Cancer Athletic Events:

The National Lung Cancer Partnership's goals include raising research dollars and awareness for lung cancer. The Free to Breathe® program accomplishes both of these goals by uniting people who are passionate about creating public awareness of lung cancer and raising vital funding for research.

In 2009, the Free to Breathe® series grew to 23+ locations, including a National Walk with participants from around the world. Nearly 22,000 people were engaged with the program as participants, donors and/or volunteers, and the program grossed over $1.1 million!

2009 events included:

All States: National Walk – November 7
CA - Los Angeles – August 2
CT - Glastonbury – September 20
FL - Jacksonville – November 7
FL - Punta Gorda – October 31
GA - Athens – November 7
LA - Lake Charles – March 14
MO - Kansas City – September 27
MD - Baltimore Yogathon – November 1
NC- Boone – October 31
NC - City of Oaks Marathon – November 1

NC - Durham Yogathon – December 21
NC - Raleigh – November 7
NC - Triad – November 14
NE - Lincoln – October 3
OH - Dayton – November 7
OH - Toledo – August 29
PA - Philadelphia – November 1
RI - Providence – October 17
SC - Columbia – November 21
WA - Seattle – November 8
WA - Tacoma – September 19
WI - Madison - September 27

Other National Events:

The National Lung Cancer Partnership's dedicated volunteers hosted events in their communities to raise awareness about lung cancer and to raise money for the Partnership's research, education and awareness programs.

The 3rd Annual Sarah Farmer Courts for a Cure Tennis Tournament was organized in memory of Sarah Farmer by her friends. The tournament was held in Plano, TX on May 2, 2009.

Erin Fenske headed up a team of volunteers to organize the Look Deeper Concert held in Dallas, TX, on November 13, 2009.

National Lung Cancer Partnership Chapter Program:

The National Lung Cancer Partnership welcomed Pennsylvania as its second State Chapter in mid 2009. The goal of the Chapter program is to provide a framework for advocates around the country to help fight lung cancer locally by raising awareness, increasing funding for lung cancer research, and reducing the stigma surrounding the disease. All Chapters will host lung cancer awareness, fundraising, and education events in their communities and will carry the messages of the Partnership throughout the nation. Chapters currently exist in Pennsylvania and North Carolina.

North Carolina Chapter Events:

The North Carolina Lung Cancer Partnership held their 2nd annual Spring Gala, An Evening of Hope, on April 25, 2009, at the Duke University Nasher Museum of Art.

The North Carolina Lung Cancer Partnership also held an awareness night at a Durham Bulls baseball game in August 2009 and participated in the "Hurricanes Fight Cancer" night at a Hurricanes NHL game in October, 2009, in addition to hosting five Free to Breathe® events.

Nancy Zeleniak, North Carolina Lung Cancer Partnership Board President Amy Cipau, and Board Chair, Dr. Jennifer Garst attend the North Carolina Spring Gala, An Evening of Hope

Pennsylvania Chapter Events:

On September 12, 2009, advocates, medical professionals and survivors attended the Pennsylvania Lung Cancer Partnership Chapter launch party, "Be the Light." The event was held at Di Bruno Bros in Philadelphia. It was a great evening as Pennsylvania started their state's movement to raise awareness and funding for lung cancer!

The Pennsylvania Chapter also hosted the nation's largest Free to Breathe® event in Philadelphia during Lung Cancer Awareness Month in November.

EDUCATION

Lung Cancer Advocacy Summit:

The second annual Lung Cancer Advocacy Summit, Acquiring Tools, Effecting Change, was held April 23-26, 2009, in Dallas, TX. The Summit provided training and guidance to 53 grassroots lung cancer advocates. They were joined by 15 alumni from the previous Summit who shared their experiences and provided guidance.

The topics discussed were: understanding the science of lung cancer; becoming a lung cancer consumer reviewer; engaging the media; crafting your message; influencing the legislative process; and raising lung cancer awareness in your community.

Look Deeper Public Service Announcement (PSA) Campaign:

The National Lung Cancer Partnership continued a national print and radio PSA campaign to inform women about their risk for lung cancer.

LUNG CANCER
kills nearly twice as many American women as breast cancer
each year.

National Exposure:

- The TV PSA was mentioned in a Los Angeles Times blog post discussing PSA campaigns that use racy images to grab viewers attention. Scenes from the TV PSA were subsequently shown on Good Morning America and CNN.
- NBC Universal agreed to distribute the PSA for use on its digital cable channels Sleuth (reaching more than 24 million homes nationwide) and Universal HD (reaching more than 3 million homes nationwide). The PSA aired during programs such as Monk, Law & Order and Nash Bridges.
- The TV PSA was aired by local stations in:
  - Los Angeles, CA
  - Philadelphia, PA
  - Indianapolis, IN
  - Dallas, TX
  - Madison, WI
  - Lake Havasu City, AZ
- The print PSA appeared in:
  - Dallas, TX
  - Nashville, TN
- The radio PSA aired in:
  - Denver, CO

Displays at Meetings and Exhibits:

The National Lung Cancer Partnership attended meetings and displayed information at events.

- Thomas G. Labrecque Run as One
April 2009 – New York, NY
- Oncology Nursing Society (ONS)
April 2009 – San Antonio, TX
- American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) June 2009 – Chicago, IL
- World Conference on Lung Cancer (WCLC)
July 2009 – San Francisco, CA
- Chicago Lung Run
September 2009 – Chicago, IL
- American College of Chest Physicians (CHEST)
November 2009 – San Diego, CA
- Lung Cancer Walk & Rally
November, 2009 – Chicago, IL
- Shine a Light on Lung Cancer
November 2009 – Boston, MA

Lung Cancer Voice – National Lung Cancer Partnership's Newsletter:

The National Lung Cancer Partnership publishes a bi-annual print newsletter and monthly e-newsletters. Article topics include: advancing lung cancer research; survivor and physician profiles; patient points of interest; and information on events.
